Children's Advocacy Center Case Manager

Nicole@linkforfamilies.org

Nicole has been a lifelong resident of Gratiot County. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Family Studies and Child Development from Central Michigan University. Nicole spent a semester during her undergraduate studies volunteering for Child Advocacy and was then hired after graduation as the Children's Advocacy Center (CAC) Case Manager and Backup Forensic Interviewer in May 2016. As Case Manager, she works in coordination with law enforcement, child protective service workers, mental health providers, and staff from the Prosecuting Attorney's Office to obtain case updates and provide support to families at the Children's Advocacy Center. In her role as Backup Forensic Interviewer, Nicole conducts quality, legally sound, developmentally appropriate interviews with children when there are allegations of child abuse and neglect. Nicole sits on the Clare, Gratiot, Isabella County Human Trafficking Coalition and is very involved in raising awareness on the issue of human trafficking. She enjoys spending time with her family, friends, and pets.
